[Reasons for not implementing Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

The Company implements the principles of the Corporate Governance Code.

[Disclosure in Accordance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code] UPDATED

[Supplementary Principle 1.2.4 Electronic Voting]

AEON Fantasy recognizes the need to develop an environment that facilitates the exercising of voting rights and to provide information in English for overseas shareholders, depending on the composition of institutional investors and other shareholders, and we have been posting English translations of our convening notices on our website since FY 2016. In FY2021, we enabled electronic exercising of voting rights via the Internet. In FY2022, we began using an electronic voting platform.

[Principle 1.4 Cross-Shareholdings]

(1) Policy on Cross-Shareholdings

AEON Fantasy's basic policy is not to hold cross-shareholdings unless we recognize the significance of holding them for our Company.

(2) Exercising of Voting Rights for Shares Held as Cross-Shareholdings

We decide whether to approve the exercising of voting rights of cross-shareholdings for each proposal, taking into consideration the cross-holding company's medium- to long-term corporate value and shareholder return and its management situation.

[Principle 1.7 Related Party Transactions]

AEON Fantasy has established the following system to ensure transactions with officers or major shareholders do not infringe on the interests of the Company or our shareholders.

- We clearly state that competitive transactions and conflicts of interest between the Company and our Directors must be approved by the Board of Directors in principle, in accordance with the Companies Act. We follow strict procedures, such as excluding Directors who have a special interest in a transaction from voting on resolutions relating to that transaction.

- We regularly verify the existence of transactions with Directors, Audit and Supervisory Board Members, and major shareholders.

[Supplementary Principle 2.3.1 System for Sustainability from the Perspective of Increasing Corporate Value]

Under our medium-term management plan (FY2021 to FY2023), announced in 2021, the Group has embarked on sustainability management by incorporating ESG perspectives into the core of our corporate activities.

In 2022, we established our Purpose, which is a sublimation of our original corporate policy, and we formulated a Sustainability Policy, which outlines the direction of our sustainability management. In addition, we identified materialities for the sustainable growth of the Company, and as of the date of filing of this Corporate Governance Report, we have established a total of five materialities: three social (S), one environmental (E), and one governance (G) materiality. In order to increase the effectiveness of our response to these materialities, we have set up lead Department-driven "Sustainability Club" that include Directors and Executive Officers for each materiality in an effort to regularly manage progress and enhance the effectiveness of our sustainability management. We have established a Sustainability Committee as an advisory body to the Board of Directors in order to manage the progress of our sustainability management numerical targets and initiatives. The Committee is chaired by the President and Representative Director and one-third or more of its members are outside experts. The Committee discusses and reports on matters referred to it by the Board of Directors.

Cross-departmental teams, called "Sustainability Clubs" have been established as subordinate organizations under the Sustainability Committee for each materiality identified to study and implement specific initiatives. Each Club is led by personnel responsible for the next generation, and sets specific indicators and targets for its activities.

[Supplementary Principle 2.4.1 Ensuring Diversity in the Promotion of Core Human Resources]

We recognize that our people are the driving force behind our growth. Based on this recognition, particularly as a global company with operations overseas, we view the promotion of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion that leverages diverse values as an important strategy for achieving sustainable growth, and we are actively advancing related initiatives.

We actively recruit and appoint talented individuals regardless of gender, nationality, age, or career background.

At present, we have two female Executive Officers, including one who serves as the president of an overseas subsidiary, in addition, another executive officer is a foreign national. We are also strengthening our efforts to secure specialized talent needed to support business diversification, including IT, creative, maintenance, and accounting professionals. In FY2025, we hired nine mid-career employees.

We also place a strong emphasis on the employment of persons with disabilities and have established an environment in which employees with disabilities can work with confidence on a long-term basis. Through workplace tours and work-experience programs at our stores, we help alleviate applicants' concerns and support recruitment. We also provide post-hire support through interviews and consultations, as well as support from external counselors. As a result, retention rates have improved, and we continue to maintain an employment rate that significantly exceeds the statutory employment rate.

As a result of these diversity promotion initiatives, including the above measures, in addition to obtaining the Platinum Kurumin Mark in 2023 and Platinum Eruboshi certification in 2024, we received the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry Award at the 14th Most Valuable Company in Japan Awards in 2024. Our double certification as both Platinum Kurumin and Platinum Eruboshi was a first within the AEON Group. We will continue not only to secure diverse talent but also to create a workplace environment in which all employees can thrive.

[Principle 2.6 Roles of Corporate Pension Funds as Asset Owners]

AEON Fantasy is a member of the AEON Corporate Pension Plan. This fund is managed to secure, over the long term, the total returns considered necessary, within an acceptable range of risk, for the purpose of reliably paying pension benefits and making lump-sum payments to beneficiaries into the future. In light of the pension fund's financial status, the fund determines and periodically reviews the policy asset mix after listening to the opinions of outside experts. The fund has established an Asset Management Committee, which selects investment products and monitors fund performance quarterly, and decisions are made by the Board of Representatives so as to maximize the interests of beneficiaries and appropriately manage conflicts of interest. The Asset Management Committee also includes the Chief Financial Officer and external experts.

(5) The reasons for the election and dismissal of Directors and Audit and Supervisory Board Members are disclosed in the Notice of the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders and other documents.

[Supplementary Principle 3.1.2 Disclosure and Provision of Information in English]

We have been proceeding with the disclosure and provision of information in English, taking into consideration the current composition of our shareholders and the effects of such disclosure and provision. We recognize the need to provide information in English for overseas investors in the future, and we have disclosed our "Financial Results" and "Supplementary Materials" in English for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2022. We also disclosed our "Corporate Governance Report" in English. Since April 2025, we have been working to disclose information in English in a timely manner.

[Supplementary Principle 3.1.3 Disclosure of Sustainability Initiatives and Investments in Human Capital and Intellectual Property]

Based on changes in society and in the environment surrounding children, we have repeatedly considered the social role expected of corporations and, in 2022, we evolved our corporate philosophy, which has guided us since our founding, into our "Purpose," by incorporating a stronger commitment to our social significance. At the same time, in order to realize our Purpose and become a company that contributes to a sustainable society while enhancing corporate value, we established a Sustainability Policy, identified five materialities, and built an implementation and promotion management system. To promote sustainability management as an important management priority, we have established a Sustainability Committee as an advisory body to the Board of Directors. Under the Committee, we have established implementation organizations corresponding to each materiality, known as Sustainability Clubs. By setting specific initiatives and numerical targets and managing progress against them, we are enhancing the effectiveness of our sustainability management. The five materialities we have identified are:

1. Contributing to the future of children
 2. Creating an organization in which employees can thrive
 3. Deepening communication with local communities
 4. Realizing a decarbonized society, a circular economy, and biodiversity conservation
 5. Strengthening corporate governance
- In particular, we recognize that addressing issues such as climate change is an important management challenge that will have a significant impact on the lives of our customers, including future generations of children, as well as on regional economies and the sustainability of society. Going forward, in addition to reducing electricity consumption and promoting initiatives through our business activities as part of our decarbonization efforts based on the AEON Decarbonization Vision 2050, we will continue to provide disclosures in line with the recommendations of the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD), which encourages companies to disclose information on climate-related risks and opportunities. We will also strive to enhance our disclosures in accordance with international standards established by the International Sustainability Standards Board (ISSB) and corresponding domestic standards.

In addition, we will continue to promote internal awareness of these policies and initiatives and build broad-based trust with society through dialogue with stakeholders, including institutional investors and shareholders.

With respect to human capital, we recognize that our people are the driving force behind our sustainable growth and that human resource development is of critical importance. We aim to develop individuals who can respond proactively to day-to-day changes, grow together with those around them, and achieve results as a team. We believe that the smiles of our Fantasy People (all those who work at AEON Fantasy), who are our most important asset, are the source of the smiles of children and their families, and we will continue to foster an organization in which employees can thrive.

We consider an ideal educational system to be one that "respects diverse values while providing opportunities to acquire the management skills required for each position and the specialized knowledge necessary for each role, thereby contributing to improvements in the Company's productivity and competitiveness through the development of individuals who can think and act independently and continue to grow," and we have expanded our programs year after year. In particular, with the aim of enhancing on-site capabilities so that we can provide better services to all customers, we place a strong emphasis on position-based training programs for employees in their current roles. Furthermore, as part of executive development, in FY2025 we launched opportunities for executive officers and candidates for future executive positions to engage in cross-boundary learning through interaction with external professionals, with the aim of deepening their management knowledge and accelerating the Company's growth.

In addition to company-sponsored training, we have established a system that enables employees who are motivated to pursue self-development to learn independently regardless of their position or employment status (the AEON Fantasy Self-Development Program). The Company covers the full cost of participation, and many employees voluntarily apply for and attend courses to acquire the skills necessary for their work.

We also launched career development support initiatives in 2025. We currently employ three nationally certified career consultants, who take the lead in conducting training programs for new graduates and mid-career hires, as well as career consultations for younger employees, thereby fostering a culture that supports autonomous career development.

In addition, to create an organization in which employees can thrive, one of our materialities, we conduct engagement surveys and are working to create a rewarding workplace for each and every Fantasy Person.

As we expand our business fields, we are also working to protect our intellectual property by promptly applying for trademark registration both in Japan and overseas. We consider our original products and characters to be important assets that differentiate us from our competitors and are therefore proactively expanding the development of original products while also engaging in branding activities through our original characters. Furthermore, we have positioned productivity improvements through digital transformation (DX) as a key initiative under our medium-term management plan and are focusing on system investments. We have launched a new membership program to enhance customer relationship management (CRM) and will continue striving to reduce workloads and improve operational efficiency through the introduction of systems and devices.

[Supplementary Principle 4.1.1 Roles and Responsibilities of the Board of Directors]

We have established Regulations of the Board of Directors and we have stipulated matters to be deliberated by the Board of Directors in accordance with laws and regulations, etc. as matters to be referred to the Board of Directors. We have also established Occupational Responsibility and Authority Regulations and clarified the scope of the management team's execution of duties, and we have put a framework in place to ensure that these rules and responsibilities are constantly reviewed in response to organizational changes, etc.

[Supplemental Principle 4-1-3 Formulation of A Succession Plan for the CEO, etc.]

The Board of Directors deliberates and determines succession plans for Directors, including the Representative Director and President, and Audit and Supervisory Board Members following deliberations by advisory committees such as the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. We then accelerate their training by dispatching potential successors to the Aeon Group's management training programs and other programs, as well as recommending such individuals to our own management development program, AEON Fantasy Top Seminar, which we introduced in 2020.

<AEON Fantasy Top Seminar>

AEON Fantasy Top Seminar is the highest level training program we offer, with the President as the dean and participants selected from senior management. The program employs experts and entrepreneurs as lecturers who can teach about the real world, and its mission is to teach "the management knowledge required of managers so they acquire the ability to think things through, implement, and be aware as a manager" and to nurture "leaders to make proposals to solve management issues." We take about a year to develop senior management who will lead the next generation.

[Supplementary Principle 4.2.2 Formulation of a Basic Policy for Sustainability Initiatives and Supervision of Investment in Human Capital and Intellectual Property]

We have established a Sustainability Policy and priority issues (materialities) through discussions with the management team, which we disclosed on April 8, 2022. We also established a Sustainability Committee, chaired by the President and Representative Director, which serves as an advisory body to the Board of Directors and reports the state of initiatives to the Board of Directors. We allocate human resources and investment domestically and internationally under the supervision of the Board of Directors, based on our business portfolio strategy.

[Supplemental Principle 4.3.4 Use and Supervision of Internal Audit and Internal Control Departments by the Board of Directors]

To promote compliance and risk management we have assigned a department to be in charge of compliance, an internal audit department, and a department to be in charge of internal controls and we have established an Internal Control Committee that is chaired by a Representative Director. We have also built a system to maintain compliance management in cooperation with the internal audit department and Audit and Supervisory Board Members. The state of the Internal Control Committee, the state of company-wide internal controls, and the appropriateness of business processes are regularly reported to the Board of Directors, which confirms the operational system. As part of our efforts to build company-wide management, we have appointed a risk management officer to conduct surveys of the current state of risks surrounding the Company and to identify and evaluate risks. Based on the outcome of the surveys, we work to implement prioritized measures, develop regulations, etc., and establish an internal management system.

[Principle 4.8 Effective Use of Independent Outside Directors]

AEON Fantasy has appointed three Independent Outside Directors who meet the qualifications for Independent Directors defined by the Tokyo Stock Exchange, and we have enabled discussions based on their independent and neutral opinions at meetings of the Board of Directors.

AEON Fantasy has appointed three Independent Outside Directors who meet the qualifications for Independent Directors defined by the Tokyo Stock Exchange, and we have enabled discussions based on their independent and neutral opinions at meetings of the Board of Directors. In addition, at least one-third of Independent Outside Directors appointed are independent from the controlling shareholder. Significant transactions that conflict with the interests of the controlling shareholder and minority shareholders are deliberated by a special committee consisting of independent officers. The special committee is not a standing committee, rather meetings are held as and when incidents occur.

[Principle 4-9 Independence Standards and Qualification for Independent Outside Directors]

We have prepared our own Standards for Independence of Outside Directors based on standards established by law and by the Tokyo Stock Exchange, and we appoint candidates for Independent Outside Director based on deliberation and consideration by the Board of Directors.

Please refer to Other Matters Relating to Independent Directors below for the Independence Standards for Outside Directors.

[Supplementary Principle 4.10.1 Establishment of a Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee Predominantly Made Up of Independent Outside Directors]

Our Independent Outside Directors coordinate with the Board of Directors and play an important role in the decision-making process. We established a Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee in 2019. At present, the Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee is composed of one internal and three external members and the Committee is structured to provide gender and other diversity and skills perspectives. The Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee further strengthens the objectivity and transparency of the selection, evaluation, and decision-making process relating to the nomination and remuneration for Directors and Audit and Supervisory Board Members.

[Principle 4.11 Preconditions for Ensuring the Effectiveness of the Board of Directors and the Audit and Supervisory Board]

The Board of Directors has an overall balance of knowledge, experience, and abilities to effectively fulfill its roles and responsibilities. Explanation UPDATED

The Company estimates its cost of capital using the Capital Asset Pricing Model (CAPM). We estimate our cost of equity at approximately 10% to 12% and our weighted average cost of capital (WACC) at approximately 7% to 9%. We recognize these figures as the minimum level of return expected by shareholders and will strive to achieve an ROE that consistently exceeds our cost of capital over the medium to long term.

Although we continue to implement structural reforms following the decline in earnings during the COVID-19 pandemic and the deterioration in earnings caused by the economic slowdown and intensifying competition in our China business, we recognize financial soundness as a challenge, with an equity ratio of 12.2% and a D/E ratio exceeding 4.0x in the fiscal year ended February 2026.

Meanwhile, both the consolidated business and domestic business achieved record highs in net sales, operating income, and ordinary income in the fiscal year ended February 2026.

To maintain a high level of ROE, we will improve net profit margins and asset turnover by reducing leverage through early cash-generating businesses while investing in high-ROIC models.

Under the Medium-Term Management Plan (FY2026-FY2030), announced on April 9, 2026, we will continue to pursue growth in our domestic business by actively expanding prize specialty stores and new playground formats that are expected to generate high capital returns. In ASEAN countries, we will shift from a growth-focused strategy to a profitability-focused strategy. The capital allocation framework presented in the Medium-Term Management Plan calls for approximately ¥80 billion in investments and the generation of approximately ¥100 billion in operating cash flow. Based on this framework, we will improve our D/E ratio and equity ratio and strengthen our financial position by reducing interest-bearing debt. At the same time, while prioritizing growth investments with high capital efficiency, we will strive to provide stable shareholder returns. By FY2030, we aim to achieve consolidated net sales of ¥150.0 billion, an operating income margin of 10%, ROE of approximately 23%, and a D/E ratio of approximately 1.0x, thereby enhancing corporate value.

We will continue to create opportunities for appropriate dialogue with institutional and individual investors and work to enhance the quality of our disclosure materials.

For further details, please refer to the Medium-Term Management Plan (FY2026-FY2030), which is available on our website.

The Company is a member of a corporate group consisting of its parent company, AEON CO., LTD. and AEON's consolidated subsidiaries and equity method affiliated companies. The core of our service business is the installation and operation of amusement facilities in shopping centers in Japan, China, and ASEAN countries. As a member of the Aeon Group, we share AEON's basic philosophy of, "Pursuing peace, respecting humanity, and contributing to local communities, always with the customer's point of view as its core" as our purpose of "nurturing children's enthusiasm to create a world full of smiles," and we conduct daily business operations based on our own judgment. We strive for sustainable growth, development, and improvements to our performance while maintaining a close cooperative relationship with AEON CO., LTD. and Aeon Group companies, while fully respecting each other's autonomy and discipline. With regard to our management decision making, the Board of Directors currently consists of eight Directors, three of whom are Outside Directors, and all three of the Outside Directors are designated as independent officers. The Company is a company with an Audit and Supervisory Board, three of whose four members are Outside Audit and Supervisory Board Members, of whom two are designated as independent officers. AEON CO., LTD., our parent company, holds 63.14% (direct holding of 60.61%) of the voting rights in the Company through the Group, including its subsidiaries. However, our daily business operating system, the supervision by Outside Directors of the Board of Directors, and our system of Outside Audit and Supervisory Board Members on the Audit and Supervisory Board do not prevent us from making independent management decisions and we recognize that a certain degree of independence from the parent company is ensured. We have established a Nomination and Remuneration Advisory Committee, which consists of four members, three of whom are Outside Directors and is chaired by an Outside Director to ensure independence and objectivity with respect to the appointment of Directors and their remuneration. Going forward we will strive to protect minority shareholders by strengthening our governance structure.

The Policy on Governance of Listed Subsidiaries, established by our parent company AEON CO., LTD., states that AEON promotes integrated group management while respecting the autonomous management of group companies, and we recognize that maximizing cooperation and synergy with AEON Group companies will benefit minority shareholders.

By sharing with shareholders not only the benefits of share price appreciation but also the risks associated with share price declines, the Company seeks to enhance Directors' motivation to continuously improve business performance and increase corporate value.

- The number of stock acquisition rights granted shall be determined after the end of the fiscal year based on the same performance indicators used for performance-based remuneration, applied to the standard allocation for each position.
